the entrance of the cave.

M. Leroy I promises to make further explorations before long. It is expected that a party fully equipped for the exploration of these wonderfor caverns of the dead will soon be fitted out un-from eating and destroying postal mat-ter and canvas mail sacks. Their work is of the utnost importance wherever large quantities of mail are collected; as, for example, at the New York postoffice, where from 2,000 to 3,000 bags of mail matter are commonly stored away in the basement. For merly great damage was done by the this chievous rolents, which chewed holes in the sacks, and thought nothing of boring clear through bags of letters in a night. Troubles of this sort no leaves the sacks are through bags of the sort no leaves the sacks are through bags of letters. The newest leaves a leave to the sacks are through the sacks FINE GROUND RAW BONE (warranted in the larger cities is allowed from $8 to
